

University of Central Florida Black
Faculty and Staff Association
Mentee of the Year Award

2021 Application

The Mentee of the Year Award will be given to a Mentee participating in a formal Mentoring Program at the University of Central Florida. The purpose of the Mentee of the Year Award is to identify and recognize a Mentee who consistently demonstrates outstanding characteristics by going above and beyond their expectations as a mentee. The mentee should have an enriched relationship with their mentor and positively demonstrates personal growth impacted the lives of others.

Selection Criteria

The nominated student should demonstrate the following qualities:

- A sincere desire to succeed as a student and is committed to personal development
- Interested in exploring different experiences and backgrounds
- Open to working with a mentor and receptive to advice and counsel
- Work with their mentor to establish realistic goals and is committed to carrying them out
- Communicates effectively with Mentor and peers
- Feels a responsibility to become an integral part of the University community

Instructions

Both the Mentee and the person submitting the nomination must be currently participating in a formal mentoring program at the University of Central Florida.

Those making a nomination are asked to provide information to the following questions:

1. Describe how the nominee strongly displays at least 3 of the qualities listed above and give specific examples of ways they have demonstrated these qualities.
2. Explain how the nominee has grown as a person because of participating in a mentoring program.
3. Why do you think this person deserves to be honored as Mentee of the Year?
4. In summary, you may make other comments and include any information you feel is pertinent to the nomination of this Mentee.

Please submit the nomination by Monday, January 25, 2021 at 5:00 p.m. via email to the Black Faculty and Staff Association bfsa@ucf.edu. There will be no deadline extensions, early submissions are preferred.
